A class is forming for a new season of RCIA...
 The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is instruction on the foundational principles of the Catholic Faith. Although the class is intended for those who are considering entering the Church many attend who just want to grow further in our faith. If your faith seems a little stale, or that it just doesn't seem to make sense, attending an RCIA class is sure to revitalize and provide clearer understanding of our rich Catholic beliefs. There is NO pressure to join the church, that is between you and the Holy Spirit. The instruction is intended to facilitate an informed and objective decision. So if you or someone you know are thinking about joining the Church or you just want to rekindle the flame by joining this season's RCIA, or would like some additional information, please call, text or email, John Bloomfield, 785-969-6895 or jbloomfield@1791.com.

The book is written by Bishop Robert Barron in response to the sexual abuse crisis in the Catholic Church. He writes, " I have written this book for my fellow Catholics who feel, understandably, demoralized, scandalized, angry beyond words, and ready to quit." Come join us, read and share your views on a topic that addresses the question: " Why stay Catholic with so much scandal?" For more information, contact John or Carmen Bloomfield at jbloomfield@1791.com 785-969-6895. The group meets on Monday nights at 7pm at Bloomfield's.

If you would rather put in a write in name, please do so. According to our by-laws we need to have an official election when someone's term is up.

Chicken Dinner questions...Eric Roth, our Finance Council chair, will be giving a short talk after Communion, about the problems surrounding our annual socials. Thank you for your time!

It takes more strength to repair than to build, to start anew than to begin, to be reconciled than to get along. That is the strength that God gives us.
