Weekly Notes from "Mass Journal" by Matthew Kelly-

God Show me one way in this Mass I can become a better version of myself this week!

The philosophy of Christ is based on discipline, and it is discipline that our modern culture abhors and has rejected with all its strength. It is true that Jesus came to comfort the afflicted, but as Dorothy Day, journalist, social activist, and Catholic convert pointed out, he also came to afflict the comfortable. The saints make many modern Catholics uncomfortable because they challenge us to throw off the spirit of the world and to embrace the Spirit of God. Like Jesus, by their example the saints invite us to a life of discipline. Contrary to popular opinion, discipline doesn't stifle or restrict the human person. Discipline isn't something invented by the Church to control or manipulate the masses, nor is it the tool that unjust tyrants and dictators use to make people do things they don't want to do. All these are the lies of a culture completely absorbed in a philosophy of instant gratification. Discipline is the faithful friend who will introduce you to your true self. Discipline is the worthy protector who will defend you from your lesser self. And discipline is the extraordinary mentor who will challenge you to become the-best-version-of-yourself and all God created you to be. What are your habits? Are your habits helping you become a-better-version-of-yourself or are they self-diminishing? Rediscover Catholicism

Ladies Meeting...The Ladies Altar Sodality will meet this coming Monday, July 9th, at 7pm, at the hall.

4th of July Prayer... Lord, we ask for blessings on our service men and women. We ask protection for all our men and women in uniform both here and around the world. We are grateful for their service and their dedication to keeping our nation safe. We pray that you would keep them safe. We thank you for our blessings of life and liberty. May our country continually show love and honor to you. May our dedication to you cause us to reach out to all the other nations and people groups with a strong desire for peace and harmony to be displayed whenever possible. We ask all these things in the name of your beloved son, Jesus Christ. Amen

Every kind of material or spiritual poverty, every form of discrimination against our brothers and sisters, comes from turning our backs on God and His love.

Marriage Minute...Do you ever get frustrated with your spouse for doing that one small, annoying thing over and over even though you have made it clear that it bothers you? Have you ever been frustrated with yourself for having to apologize for the same thing? Weakness is hard to accept... both in ourselves and our spouse. This weekend's readings tell us that when we are weak, we are strong. Why? • Every act of forgiveness is a recommitment to love that makes us stronger. • Our own weakness makes us humble, relying on God's grace. • Accepting our spouse's weakness helps us to be patient with ourselves (and vice versa!). Stuck thinking about your spouse's faults? Try massive amounts of compliments and affirmation! They don't erase weakness, but change your focus.
