There are 1.2 billion Catholics in the world... There are sixty-seven million Catholics in America—that's at least fifteen million more people than it takes to elect an American president. And every single day the Catholic Church feeds, houses, and clothes more people, takes care of more sick people, visits more prisoners, and educates more people than any other institution on the face of the earth could every hope to. Let's Make a Difference!

Congratulations...To Kyle Goodwin and Tayler Lyons who were married May 26th, at Sacred Heart Church, Paxico. Tayler and her family are members of Holy Family in Alma. Their witnesses were Shelby Lyons and Austin Gilliam. May God bless your marriage always, Kyle and Tayler!

Weekly Notes from "Mass Journal" by Matthew Kelly-

God Show me one way in this Mass I can become a better version of myself this week! The first Christians were not perfect, nor were the saints. They lived in communities that were torn by strife in ways remarkably similar to what we are experiencing today, and they struggled with the brokenness of their own humanity in the same way you and I do. But they were dedicated to the basics. The first Christians intrigued the people of their time. So did the saints, and so do ordinary people who embrace the Christian life today. In the great majority of cases they don't do anything spectacular. For the most part they commit themselves to doing simple things spectacularly well and with great love, and that intrigues people. We need to intrigue the people of our time in the same ways. Whom does your life intrigue? Not with spectacular accomplishments, but simply by the way you live, love and work?

Welcome...to our annual Chicken Dinner and Bazaar! We thank you in advance for your support!

Work in Progress...As you can see, we are in the process of tuck-pointing our historic school building. It is being done by Restoration and Water Proofing of Topeka. We have several big projects going on this summer around our facilities, and this is the beginning. We will also be replacing the roof of the church and school, and building a permanent ramp into the school. Keep watching!! Also, if any of you were at the Cemetery over Memorial Day weekend, you may have noticed the Locator Kiosk is almost done. There is some rock work to complete yet, but the locator is up and was a big help to several over the weekend! Thank you to the cemetery board and several Memorials and gifts that made this possible.

Loving Christ is not a superficial sentiment. It is an attitude of the heart that we demonstrate when we live as He wants us to.

Marriage Minute...The Blame Game Have you ever had a dream where you are naked in front of a big crowd? This fear of being exposed seems to go all the way back to the Garden. This weekend we hear Adam and Eve facing God in the wake of the first sin. Being unable to hide, they try another approach... blame. You can just picture Adam pointing at Eve, and Eve pointing at the snake! Marriage is a call back to the Garden to begin again, now with Jesus' help and mercy. • Commit to being totally honest with your spouse. • Admit your faults quickly. • Ask and grant forgiveness sincerely. • Make frequent use of the sacrament of Reconciliation.
