Weekly Notes from "Mass Journal" by Matthew Kelly-

God Show me one way in this Mass I can become a better version of myself this week! The process of identifying strengths and weaknesses and transforming weaknesses into strengths is classic Catholic spirituality. For two thousand years, the champions of Christianity, the men and women we call saints, have been going into the classroom of silence, taking a humble and honest look at themselves, and assessing their own strengths and weaknesses. Then, armed with this knowledge, they have bravely set forth to transform their weaknesses into strengths, their vices into virtues.

Box 476, Boring, OR call (503)663-6182 or email to jen@bithellfarms.com. Their website address is www.bithellfarms.com If there are enough orders from our area, they will still make a stop at the church as they have done in the past. If not, they will add people to another delivery location.

Silent Auction Thanks...Thanks so much to all those who donated and purchased Silent Auction items! This year over 50% of the items went to out-of-towners. And we had a wooden tractor we had received last fall from the late Fred Mathies which brought $180. There is a truck left for the Sausage Dinner! We are blest to have had Fred's support for over 10 years (that's 50 items which brought in $3,400). It's time to start thinking about something for the Sausage Supper Silent Auction!! Marilyn & Linda

Dear young people, help us adults whose hearts are often hardened.

Marriage Minute...The Cross of Infertility This weekend we celebrate the birth of John the Baptist, a miraculous child born to parents who bore the heavy burden of infertility for many years. God answered Elizabeth and Zachariah's prayers, but there are likely couples you know who are still waiting for their answer. Here is how you can help: • Don't give advice unless asked. • Acknowledge their suffering and offer to listen. • Be sensitive regarding baby or child-related events. • Continue to pray and let your friend know you are praying. If you are in the midst of this struggle yourself, we know there are no easy answers. We join you in prayer with this weekend's psalm: For you are my hope, O LORD; my trust, O LORD, from my youth.
