May is the Month of Mary-Pray for Peace!
The Family is the hope of the future. Let us pray especially for families facing serious difficulties: may Our Lord assist them. Pope Francis

Info needed... A fact: 80% of our Catholic students stop practicing their faith during their college years. You can help change that. The "Newman Connection" strives to save these students by connecting new high school graduates to the Catholic ministry at the college they will be attending. If you have a graduate that will be attending college this coming year, let the office know (or email Carol, sacredheartpaxico@gmail.com) with the students name, college, city & state of the college. This information will be sent to the Newman Connection who will in turn contact the school, so they can invite the student to participate in their activities. Please help new college students keep their faith alive during their college years by sending us this information.

Book Discussion Group...John Bloomfield home, Monday evenings, 7pm. All are welcome!

Breakfast...The Altar Society is having breakfast after Mass today to honor our grads! Come join us!

Important...During a recent meeting of the ladies of the Altar Society, it was decided that we would like to recognize all the different people who contribute so much to the faith-building of Holy Family. So much of the time we take it for granted that something is done, and we don't even know who it is that does the work! For several weeks we will be acknowledging these "secret service" people.

Beulah Herbic has been the altar cloth laundress for many years and has now retired from that duty and Ramona Miller has now accepted the responsibility. Also, Beulah has for many years sent sympathy, get well, and congratulations cards to our parishioners and others in the community. She has also retired from this duty and Anna Mae Anderson has taken over sending the get well and sympathy cards. Louise Schutter is now sending congratulations cards. Thank you, Ladies, for everything you have done and will be doing!

Weekly Notes from "Mass Journal" by Matthew Kelly-

God Show me one way in this Mass I can become a better version of myself this week! There is genius in Catholicism, if we will just take the time and make the effort to humbly explore it. If you and I are not part of the solution, we are part of the problem! If sixty-seven million Catholics in the United States stepped it up a notch, something incredible would happen. So let's decide, here and now, today, to begin to explore the genius of our faith, to be part of the solution, and to step it up a notch!

Silent Auction Time...The chicken dinner is June 10 and it's time to put together a theme basket/container or get a special item for our Silent Auction! Please make sure everything is brand new (or a very priceless craft or antique). Give us a call as soon as you know what you are donating. You may give it to us anytime, no later than Friday before the Dinner, preferably a week before so we'll know how much display space we need. Please provide a neatly written/typed list of what's in your basket and a dollar value. We will put cellophane bags over baskets containing small items. This has been a very popular event at our church socials so use some creativity! We have had some very talented ideas! Thanks!

Memorials... Thank you to the Don Glotzbach family for dedicating Don's memorial to the Cemetery Fund. It is greatly appreciated!

There is no love without works of charity. Service towards our brothers and sisters springs from the heart that loves.

Marriage Minute...Sometimes we forget that we don't walk the road of married life alone! The same Holy Spirit that transformed the Apostles' fear into boldness wants to work in our marriages today. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to intercede for our marriages this weekend in the words of the beautiful sequence we prayed at Mass: Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away; Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore and confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end.
